"Perfecting their fusion of indigenous healing chants with fresh, starry worlds of harmonic sound, Anima's music and live performances are creating a love evolution around the world"

Sound Medicine (2011)

Anima's beautiful and profoundly healing music touches the heart and soothes the soul, embracing the listener in a translucent experience of the Sacred. With angelic vocals, sacred chants and ceremonial instruments infused within specially sculptured soundscapes and healing frequencies, Anima's music is an offering of peace and tenderness.

Temple of the Heart (2010)

Ali Calderwood and Daniela Broder have both spent a number of years living with indigenous elders and healers, studying ancient ways of ceremony, spirit medicine, yoga and the use of sacred sound.

Temple of the Stars (2010)

Ali's work with music is known for its luminous depths of harmonic sound, which are greatly influenced by many years of immersion within ancient and indigenous ways of shamanism. Daniela's voice and music soothes and opens the heart, enfolding the listener in a tender embrace of the Sacred.

Crystaligned Dreams (2008)

Anima Fluid Mix (2009)

Anima emerged in 2004 with Ali releasing two solo albums, 'Celestial Baptism' and 'Star AnceStory'. In 2006 he joined together to perform music with Daniela while travelling in Mexico. Later that year, they rejoined again in Peru and while living in the Amazon jungle and later Bolivia, they created their first collaborated album, 'Lemuria Emerging' (2007)

Lemuria Emerging (2007)

Anima have now released 7 albums which have been an evolving journey of musical alchemy, inspired by their experiences of ancient wisdom and the awakened heart. They are currently based in the UK, and continue to offer concerts and workshops throughout the world. See Anima's Bio for more info..
